A closer look at the Spanish A level course...

The Sixth Form entry grade for Spanish is 6 at GCSE, having taken Higher exam papers, and with a good Writing grade. Students with a 7 and above at GCSE will find it easier to access the course.

Why study Spanish at A level?

The qualifications offer a suitable progression route to further study at university level and add to students' employability profile, particularly for UK organisations trading overseas as well as with international companies based in the UK and globally. Students can progress to a wide range of careers in areas such as journalism and media, education, science, medicine, the civil service, sales, marketing, retail, and charities.

Fully linear

A levels will be fully linear, with students sitting their exams at the end of the two-year course. The A Level qualification will be graded on a six-grade scale from A* to E.

Themes and Sub-topics – You will study 4 themes over two years. Each Theme will have 3 sub-topics

A level lists of literary texts AND films

A level students must study either one text AND one film OR 2 texts:

Literary texts

- Bodas de sangre, Federico García Lorca, 1932 (play)
- Como agua para chocolate, Laura Esquivel, 1989 (novel)
- El coronel no tiene quien le escriba, Gabriel García Márquez, 1961 (novella)
- La casa de Bernarda Alba, Federico García Lorca, 1936 (play)
- Nada, Carmen Laforet, 1943 (novel)
- Primera memoria, Ana María Matute 1959 (novel)
- Réquiem por un campesino español, Ramón J. Sender, 1953 (novella)

Films

- Diarios de motocicleta, dir. Walter Salles (2004)
- El laberinto del fauno, dir. Guillermo del Toro (2006)
- La lengua de las mariposas, dir. José Luis Cuerda (1999)
- La misma luna, dir. Patricia Riggen (2007)
- Mar adentro, dir. Alejandro Amenábar (2004)
- También la lluvia, dir. Icíar Bollaín (2010)
- Volver, dir. Pedro Almodóvar (2006)

- Studying a film or a book may sound a little intimidating but it is lots of fun and really helps you expand your knowledge of Spanish culture. 😊
- Also, we will be here to support you as you go and make sure you are understanding and (hopefully) enjoying the texts!
- A good (and easy) way to start thinking about and enjoying Spanish culture is to start listening to Spanish music. We recommend:

Shakira, Enrique Iglesias, Álvaro Soler, Juanes, Beyoncé (some of her songs are recorded in Spanish), Perez2a, Marc Anthony, Gipsy Kings, Aitana, Rosalía, Dvicio, CNCO, Luis Fonsi, Nicky Jam, Sofía Reyes, Ana Guerra, Pablo Álboran, Efecto Pasillo...

Y11 INTO Y12 SPANISH
SUMMER HOLIDAY WORK

- Quiz on Spain (answer in Spanish). Search for the words in Spanish and look at Spanish websites. Make a list of any you use to find the information. Bring the quiz to your first lesson with Miss Price in September.
- Revise the tenses you learned for GCSE (present, preterite, imperfect, future, conditional). There will be a test on these after a few weeks. If you're not sure, look at the verb section of studyspanish.com and the 'useful websites' list in your induction booklet.
- Collect an article related to each of the 6 sub-topics you will study in Y12 (family, tourism in Spain, work in Spain, Spanish music, media in Spain, festivals/traditions). These can be in English or Spanish and can be from newspapers, magazines or the internet. At A level, you will need to be able to express opinions and demonstrate knowledge of trends/facts as well as well as being judged on your Spanish so wide reading is essential.
