Moodboards can include a range of different things including; good quality images, fabric samples, colour chips, key words, components relevant to the top, patterns. I would recommend completing the moodboard by hand and then take clear and high quality photos of your work.

The work that you produce could be used as part of your portfolio later (if you wanted to progress into an Art & Design/Fashion based qualification or job role) and is also a fun piece of work that meets part of the Fashion & Textiles A Level qualification.

If you would like to take part in the competition, please email me on finchc@presdales.herts.sch.uk and start putting together a moodboard. The deadline for the competition is the 5th of June

I have also attached some example moodboards and fashion templates that you can use to support and inspire you; found on Google Images
