

tathagatagarbha

Buddhists believe that there is no fundamental difference between any human. Every individual is valued and should be treated fairly and therefore with justice. This makes everyone equal.

Prejudice - 'To judge before'. An attitude, belief or feeling formed without adequate prior knowledge, thought or reason about a person or group of people. This attitude could be about gender, religion, sexual preference and many other things.

Prejudice and Discrimination

dukkha

Discrimination - the actual behavior of excluding or restricting members of one group from opportunities that are available to other groups because of the group they are in.

karuna

People should try to reduce the suffering of others because the people who are suffering may be suffering over things they can't control and nobody should be ashamed and suffering over prejudice and/or discrimination.
