

Spanish project 2020

Chloe milson y8

The festival i have chosen is...

La Fallas -valencia

Where and when the festival takes place:

La fallas takes place in Valencia.

It is always on the 15th to the 19th of March. Also saint Joseph's day.

What is celebrated at the festival: who takes part in the festival:

Las Fallas celebrates the arrival and beginning of spring. It also is a religious holiday during which Valencians remember Saint Jose.

It is celebrated by most people in Valencia. It attracts many foreign visitors as well as Spanish tourists from all over the country.

History of the festival:

There are a few myths on the festivals history here is one of them: The most popular version of how the festival started says that Las Fallas comes from a centuries-old Valencian tradition, valencian carpenters would burn old materials and wooden instruments they didn't need on the day before the day of St. Joseph.

What happens at the festival:

Anything can happen at the spanish festival Las Fallas, The whole city can just let loose and the streets become an outdoor art gallery, non-stop firework display and party zone. It can even extend to be a month long celebration.

Typical food and drink:

The most popular food during Las Fallas Festival is tapas. The top choice restaurants and places for Las Fallas food is Las Cuevas restaurant and Sagardi restaurant (is a good choice for its birds-eye view of the festivities).

Typical clothes worn:

Traditional costumes are worn for the festival.

What the festival is like:

Key spanish vocab about the festival:

Las Fallas - the name of the festival

Falla - a traditional Valencian neighbourhood/community

Falla - the sculptures created for the burning in the festival and displayed on the streets.

Pasacalle - a parade of falleros through the streets in full colours and with music. Muneco
- "doll", another name for the Falla-Sculpture.

Mascleta - the sound of the fireworks.

Castillo - the visual of the fireworks.

Crida - the ceremony oat the end of february for the festival.

- the burning of the dolls.

Crema Las

Fallas -the spanish festival on saint jose.

My opinion on the festival:

Chloe milson

I think that something good about it is the way all of the country and city come together to celebrate.

I also think that something bad about it is the burning at the end as that is very dangerous.

I wouldn't like to go as it would be very overwhelming and different. I wouldn't know what to do.

GOODBYE

THANK YOU FOR WATCHING