

Québec

Natalie Bolton

How would I get there?

I would travel to Québec by plane. I would fly from London Gatwick Airport (LGA) to Toronto Pearson International Airport (YYZ) as there isn't a direct flight to Québec. I would then go from Toronto to Québec

Where would I stay?

I would stay in one of Québec's most famous hotels, Fairmont Le Château Frontenac. It was built roughly 130 years ago and is one of the most luxurious hotels in Canada. It has its own indoor pool, spa and is also pet-friendly. There are

What about food?

The hotel itself has a restaurant called Le Sam Bistro but there are plenty of others you I could go to. Some of the best places to eat would be Le Continental, Le Lapin Saute and Bistro Sous Le Fort. These places have traditional French

When would I go? What would I do?

I would go at the start of February 2021 as this is when Québec have their winter festival (Carnival Le Québec) beginning on 5th February and ending on the 14th. Its centered at Bonhomme's Winterland, located on the historic Plains of Abraham. You can go down ice slides on toboggans, lead your