

What I have done and learned that I could do during lockdown

Sienna Akore

I started dance when I was two and a half and when lockdown happened my dance school shut down so I have been doing online dance classes so here are some of the things I have done/learned I could do over lockdown.

I also did some cooking
and baking

Stretch/flexibility

- Here are two of the dances I was taught and these are my favorite styles of dance
