

A

Ada Yonath

In 2009 Ada won a Nobel prize in chemistry. She became the first woman in 45 years to win the prize.

B

Barbra McClintak

Barbra McClintak won a Nobel in 1983 in Philosophy and Medicine.

C

Chien shiungwy

In 1957 Chien Shuingwy won A Nobel price In Physics. After winning Her price she was known to be called the first lady of physics, the Chinese madam Curie and queen of nuclear.

D

Donna Strickland

2 years ago, Donna Strickland won a Nobel Price in Physics. She is now a professor in the university of Waterloo in Canada. In 2018 Donna was listed as one of BBC'S 100 Woman.

E

Emmy Noether

Emmy Noether was a mathematician.

She was described by several people including Albert Einstein as one of the most important Mathematician

F

Florence R. Sabin

Florence was an American medical scientist.

She was the first woman to hold a full professorship

At Johns Hopkins school of medicine. Florence was also

The first woman to elected to the National academy of Sciences.

G

Gerty Cori

Gerty Cori was an American biochemist. In 1947 Gerty

Was the third woman to win a Nobel prize in science.

H

Hertha Ayrton

Hertha was a British engineer, mathematician, and a

Physicist. She was awarded with the Hughes Medal from

The Royal society.

I

Inge Lehmann

In 1936 Inge Lehmann discovered that J

arth has an inner core.

J

Jocelyn Bell Burnell

Jocelyn is an astrophysicist. She discovered the first radio pulsars in 1967. Her discovery led her to winning a Nobel Prize in 1974.

K

Katherine Johnson

Katherine Johnson was very successful in her time. She was a mathematician working for NASA. She earned a reputation for mastering challenging mathematical questions.

L

Laura Bassi

Laura was an Italian physicist. She was the second woman in the world to earn a degree of doctor of philosophy.

M

Maud Menten

Maud Menten was a bio-medical and medical scientist. She studied in the university of Toronto in America.

N

Nancy Hopkins

Nancy Hopkins was an American scientist.

She became a member of the National Academy of Sciences. Nancy was known for her research and identifying

Bacterial viruses.

O

Olga Holtz

Olga Holtz is a Russian mathematician. In 2008 she won the European Mathematical Society.

P

Patricia H. Clarke

British biochemist

R

Rachel Carson

Rachel Carson was a marine biologist. In 1950 she became an official full-time writer. One of her books called The Sea Around Us won a U.S. National Book Award.

S

Sally Floyd

Sally Floyd was an American computer scientist. In 2007 she became one of the top ten most cited researchers in computer science.

T

Tara Keck

Tara Keck is a British neuroscientist. She is Working at the university of London.

U

Uta Frith

Uta Frith is a German psychologist. She was working at the University Collage London.

V

Vi Hart

Vi Hart Is a Mathematician.
She is well known for creating Mathematical videos
On YouTube.

Wendy Hall

Wendy Hall is a British computer scientist.
She is at the University of Southampton.

Xie Xide

Xie Xide was a Chinese physicist.
She became the president of Fudan University
From 1983 to 1989.

Y

Yvonne Barr

Yvonne Barr was a virologist.
In 1964 she co discovered the Epstein Barr
Virus.

Z

Zeng Fanyi

Zeng is a stem cell scientist and professor. She studied at the Shanghai Jiao Tong University.

By Tayla, Hannah and Athena