Dear Parent/Carer/Student

Open Evening

Thank you to all students who were involved in the Open Evening yesterday. We received numerous positive comments from those visiting. Parents mentioned how confident, articulate and polite their guides were and how fantastic those in classrooms had been.

Thank you also to all of our staff who have worked hard over the last few weeks to ensure the evening was a success. Our Open Evening is an important event as we never assume that we will fill all of our places. Everyone played their part, thank you.

Presdales Festival of Football

This event is normally held in the summer term, but we have now moved it earlier in the year. This week, we welcomed nearly three hundred Year 3-6 girls from several local primary schools to participate in our annual Festival of Football. For many, this was their first experience of playing in a competitive situation.

Year 3/4

1st Place: Hertingfordbury Cowper Primary School

2nd Place: Hertford Heath Primary School

3rd Place: Morgans Primary School

Year 5/6

1st Place: St Mary's Primary School

2nd Place: St Edmund's College

3rd Place: Mill Mead Primary School

Well done to all of the students who took part in the competition.

Thank you to Rob Macrae (Presdales) and Lisa Robinson (Hertford and Ware District Sports Partnership) for organising the event. Thanks also goes to 30 of our amazing Year 9 and 10 Sports Leaders who helped during the two-day event.

Wishing you all a pleasant weekend.

Regards

Mr M Warren
